Ride in respectful Silence.

Wear black armbands to honour those who have been killed.
Wear a red armband if you have been injured while cycling.
Ride two abreast, stop at red lights, obey all traffic laws.
Move slowly at the speed of funeral procession.

This is an apolitical, peaceful, memorial occasion to honour those who can no longer speak for themselves.

There is no registration, no sponsors, no t-shirt, no prizes, no fees and no insurance. This ride is a safe, responsible and mature response to the carnage on the roads we ride on.

WE SHALL NOT FORGET THEM
BE THERE
BRING FRIENDS

The worldwide Ride of Silence takes place at 6pm on 16th May in the northern hemisphere. For safety and visibility this is not appropriate for Australia in winter.
